Favourite Team: Canada

Favourite Player: Andria Hunter

Pre Game Meal: Depends on my mood – plain pasta or a sandwich with salad

First Hockey Team: Brantford, then the Junior Aeros in Toronto

Favourite Hockey Memory: changed it to Inline Hockey memory – in 2002 when we won the whole thing – the very first Women's World Championships and we beat the US in the finals 2-0 on their own turf. An Amazing tournament!

Other Hockey Awards/Highlights: Drafted 3rd to Team Alberta this summer for the CWHL. I was the first female to play high school boys hockey in Central Western Ontario, and chose University of Toronto's varsity hockey program to continue my playing days. A few years playing for the Scarborough Sting and the Mississauga Ice Bears in the National Women's Hockey League where I also sat on the NWHL Board as Secretary for three years, then I moved out to Edmonton to play on the Edmonton Chimos in the Western Women's Hockey League.

I have also helped scout and evaluate goalies, run goalie on-ice sessions, run coach information sessions, and moderate Hot Stoves for Hockey Alberta at selection camps.

Career: I finished a 4 year undergraduate degree at the University of Toronto (majored in Psychology and Criminology, minored in Women's Studies), then headed to Osgoode Hall Law School and got called to the Ontario Bar in 2003. I was called to the Alberta Bar in 2004 after moving out to Edmonton, and I am currently the General Counsel for the Edmonton Oilers (NHL), Edmonton Oil Kings (Western Hockey League) and the Edmonton Capitals (Golden Baseball League), where I have been since 2006.

Biggest Influence in Hockey: changed it to Inline Hockey – Donna Forbes – she keeps doing all the organization and putting out all the effort year after year to make sure we have a team and get to go compete at Worlds. She is amazing!
